GIANTS QUIT AMPOL CUP!

National League clubs are almost certain to pull out of the Ampol Cup competitions throughout Australia.

In Victoria, the withdrawal of Hellas, Alexander, JUST and, to a lesser extent, Mooroolbark, will rob the series of more than 60 per cent of its gate takings.

It had been expected that the national league clubs would take part in the Cup, which is played in January and February every year.

However, Hellas president Sam Papasavas moved at the national league meeting in Sydney last week that national league clubs should not field their senior teams in any State competition.

Others agreed that the big league clubs would lose prestige if they were to play in State competitions and that it would therefore be more difficult to promote the national league.

The clubs, meeting at the Hakoah social club at Bondi, decided that the league season of 26 weeks should be extended through the introduction of a Cup competition, perhaps on a knock-out basis.

The meeting elected Mr Alex Pongrass of St George as the league chairman and Mr Papasavas as vice-chairman.

It was decided that promotion and relegation should be introduced after a three-year consolidation period.

The bottom two teams will play off home and away against the champion of their respective home States.

The results of the play-offs will determine whether the State champion is promoted or whether the national league club holds it place.

In the case of the Canberra team, which is the only representative of its State, relegation would be applied if it finished last three times in a row.

The meeting also decided it would appoint its own referees' panel and tribunals.

No announcement has been made about which company will sponsor the league.

Rothmans has offered $100,000 for each of three years, but it has been outbid by $50,000 by another company whose name is being kept secret.

The national league is trying to get Rothmans to offer another $50,000. If the company refuses, the league will probably take the other offer.

Alternatively, sponsorship may be shared by the two companies.

The 14 national league teams have each paid their $3500 membership fee and the NSL now has a total of $49,000.

Steps are now underway to register the league as a limited company.

And NSL manager John Frank has been instructed to draw up the fixture list within the next six weeks.

Clubs in clear over punch-up

Essendon Lions player Mike Chudiak nurses an injured ankle at Western General Hospital after the match against Green Gully Ajax, which was disrupted by a wild brawl. A policeman was also taken to hospital. One eye-witness described the Green Gully ground as a "battle-field" at the height of the fighting. However, it appears unlikely that charges will be laid by the VSF. Picture by Mike Rayner.

The Victorian Soccer Federation has ordered an investigation of the brawl at the Green Gully Ajax v Essendon Lions game last Sunday.

The VSF will ask for a report from the police and for reports from both clubs.

It will then decide whether or not charges will be laid.

However, it is unlikely the VSF will take action.

Referee David Yelland said in his report to the VSF that the brawl had nothing to do with the game itself, and that neither club was to blame.

The brawl, at the Green Gully ground at St Albans, started about 20 minutes from the end of the game, after Lions player Mike Chudiak had been fouled by Eddy Klimczak of Green Gully.

Lions supporters yelled and protested from the sidelines, and police moved in to calm them down.

There are varying reports about how the fight actually started.

Some reports suggest police provoked retaliation, while others say that police were attacked first.

About 40 people were involved in the fighting at the height of the brawl.

However, the game was not held up and finished in a scoreless draw.

Six police and a mounted trooper were on duty at the start of the game. About 25 more arrived after reinforcements were called for.

One policeman, Constable Boyan Reisman of St Albans, was hit below the eye with what appeared to be the handle of a screwdriver or file.

The blow knocked him out and he was taken to the Western General Hospital.

Other police received minor injuries.

Three men were arrested on charges including offensive behavior, resisting arrest and assault.

Police said that the Green Gully club was in no way to blame for the brawl.

The club's officials, dressed in white coats, did their best to help police break up the fighting.

There were about 2000 spectators at the ground.

Mr Rolf Jaeger, president of the St Albans club, was among the spectators, and attended Const. Reisman when he was knocked out.

Mr Jaeger said: "Spectators used cowardly hit-and-run tactics, hitting police from behind and running off."

Lions player Mike Chudiak was taken to hospital after the game with an injured ankle.

Australia in Oceania?

The Oceania Confederation may be reformed this year, with Australia as a member.

FIFA president Joao Havelange and secretary Dr Helmut Kaser will almost certainly visit Australia in November.

From here they will probably visit New Zealand to organise a congress meeting, perhaps in Australia.

The congress will reform the Oceania Confederation and Australia will join.

Up to now, Australia has stayed out of the Confederation, arguing that the Confederation was flaunting FIFA rules.

Rothmans goalie of the week

Peter Laumets (pictured) of Makedonia has opened up a two-point lead in voting for the Rothmans Goalkeeper of the Week.

The winner will receive $250 from Rothmans, the company that supports soccer.

He will be the goalkeeper who has appeared most often in the "Soccer Action" Team of the Week (see page 5).

Standings: Peter Laumets (Makedonia) 4 points, John Kennedy (Hellas), Mike O'Hara (Hakoah), Peter Blasby (Alexander), Dennis Boland (JUST) 2 points each; Bill Johnson (Sunshine), Mike Harby (Juventus) one each.

'We'll field reserves'

Essendon Lions manager Tony Vrzina said this week the club may play its reserve team against Western Suburbs on Saturday.

"We might as well give away points instead of having more of our players taken to hospital," Vrzina said.

"Every week it's the same thing. Our best players are hit hard and put out of the game."

Vrzina said Babic, Kulyk, Gunn, Gardiner and Chudiak had all been injured in recent games.

Gardiner had two broken fingers from having his hand stood on, Babic had one broken finger, Kulyk had a broken nose, Chudiak a seriously injured ankle, and Gunn had stitches in his leg.

GIANTS QUIT CUP

From page one

It was announced that only matches played in Melbourne and Sydney will be taped for national television exposure through the 0-10 network, which will pay $40,000 for television rights in the first year.

Because of Channel 0's VFA commitments on Sundays, the station proposes to cover games only on Saturdays.

This is unacceptable to the Melbourne clubs, who want to play on Sundays because Saturday crowds are traditionally low.

Mr Papasavas believes Melbourne clubs could be ruined financially if they have to carry the burden of Saturday games.

Talks are now going on between league officials and the 0-10 network to work out the problem.

The two grounds that will almost certainly be used for televised games are Olympic Park and the Sydney Sports Ground.

The meeting agreed that it may have to postpone the start of the first national league season if the national team still has World Cup commitments by March.

It was felt that the league could not start successfully if its top players are away with the Socceroos.

A league planning committee is being set up, comprising five members of the national league and five representatives of the ASF.

The national league representatives are Mr Mangopoulos (Victoria), Dr Zaikos (SA), Mr Lowey (NSW), Mr Pacras (Queensland) and Mr Dillon (ACT).

It was decided that the league would pay for air fares for parties no larger than 16.

The 14 national league clubs are: South Melbourne Hellas, Footscray JUST, Fitzroy Alexander and Mooroolbark United of Victoria; Hakoah, St George, Pan Hellenic, Marconi and Western Suburbs of Sydney; Hellas and Juventus of Adelaide; Brisbane City and Lions of Brisbane, and Canberra.

Australia in Oceania?

One of these rules is that non-FIFA countries should not have a congress vote.

However, the Solomon Islands, New Hebrides, New Caledonia and Tahiti have been allowed to vote at these meetings.

They are affiliated with the French FA, and are therefore not full FIFA members.

In a reformed Confederation, only four countries would be able to vote as full members — Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and Papua-New Guinea.

Stars of No. 96 turn to soccer!

The stars of the No. 96 television show have been inspired to take up soccer.

The man who has inspired them is Harry Michaels, who plays the part of Italian shopkeeper Giovanni Lenzi in the soap opera.

Michaels was recently recruited to APIA-Leichhardt.

APIA secretary Frank Sbisa heard that Michaels used to play soccer for Roseberry Rhodes, so he signed him up.

And now the whole No. 96 team wants a kick.

APIA was happy to oblige.

On August 15, as the curtain-raiser to the APIA v Auburn match, the No. 96 stars will play against a team of APIA old boys, including Battalico, Hughes, McKinnon, Giacometti and van Blerk.

On the same day, APIA will hand out life memberships to six past and present club stalwarts — Fil Bottalico, Joe Marston, John Giacometti, Nick Cosettini, John Provera and Vince Cammereri.

Harry Michaels' debut with the APIA reserves was against Pan Hellenic some weeks ago.

Coach Danny McKinnon sent Michaels on when the score was 1-1.

Immediately three Pan Hellenic men marked him, leaving the other wing open for David Jack to exploit and score the winning goal.

NSL RESERVES TO BE PUSHED INTO SECOND DIVISION?

The four Victorian National League clubs may be asked to run their second grade teams in the Second Division rather than the First Division of the Metropolitan League.

However, the teams would be eligible for promotion from the Second Division.

A meeting of the eight State League clubs which will not join the national league, agreed last week that, problems would be created if reserve teams were to play in the First Division.

The national league clubs and the Metropolitan League had earlier agreed to the proposal that the reserve teams enter the First Division.

It had been suggested that these teams be ineligible for promotion to the State League, but subject to relegation to the Second Division.

The meeting of the eight State League clubs last week apparently came to the conclusion that making the reserve teams ineligible for promotion would be unconstitutional.

Also, the presence of teams with nothing to aim for, could make the promotion race farcical.

Metropolitan League talk about the four reserve teams having no representation in league management was strongly opposed.

The feeling was that it would be unfair to create what would amount to second-rate citizens.

The meeting, held at Soccer House, adhered strongly to the principle that any confrontation with the four national league clubs should be avoided and that a spirit of co-operation should be persued.

A sub-committee comprising John van Hoboken, Michael Weinstein, Les Shorrock and Vito Cilauro was elected to meet the national league clubs and the Metrolopitan League.

The sub-committee will try to reach peaceful agreements with all other parties and dispel suspicions and uncertainties.

State League clubs afraid they'll lose grounds, players

Discussions will probably deal with the future make-up of the Victorian State team, grounds and player transfers.

Juventus, Slavia and George Cross, which all use Olympic Park, are believed to be upset by reports that Footscray J.U.S.T. is trying to get the ground for next season.

There are also fears that national league clubs may try to "poach" players from other clubs. Meanwhile, the chairman of the State League management committee, Mr. Sam Papasavas of Hellas, has resigned from his post.

He has predicted earlier that he would resign if Hellas was admitted to the national league.

The other national league clubs are Footscray J.U.S.T., Fitzroy Alexander and Mooroolbark United.

Mr. George Kerry of Polonia has declared himself a candidate for the State League chairmanship.

The election is on Monday, August 2.

ONLY FOUR GAMES CONFIRMED FOR WORLD TOUR

Only four opponents for the Australian team have been confirmed by the Socceroos' world tour at the end of the year.

They are Indonesia, Hong Kong, Israel, PSV Eindhoven of Holland, and Sunderland of England.

Saudi Arabia and Kuwait, earlier considered certain opponents for Australia, are both doubtful.

Talk about Glasgow Rangers meeting Australia in Scotland was no more than that — talk.

The ASF is hoping to arrange 15 matches for the touring Socceroos.

It is still negotiating for games against Hamburg SV, Iran, Greece, England under 23, South Korea and Cyprus.

Everton youths join Slavia

Two former English youth internationals from Everton have joined Slavia.

They are David Kelly and Mike O'Halloran, both 18-year-old midfielders.

O'Halloran was a Catholic youth representative and Kelly a full English youth player.

Both served their apprenticeships with Everton and played in the reserves last season.

Slavia is expecting a number of other players from the UK in the next few weeks.

Super Cup dates

The European "Super Cup" matches between the winner of the European Cup, Bayern Munich, and the European Cup Winners' Cup, Anderlecht, will be played on August 17 in Munich and August 30 in Brussels.

The 1975 Super Cup was won by Dynamo Kiev which twice beat Bayern Munich.

PAN HELLENIC 1 (Allan), MARCONI-FAIRFIELD 0. Crowd: 3133.

MATCH OF THE WEEK

A late goal by striker Don Allan gave Pan Hellenic a vital 1-0 win over Marconi-Fairfield at Wentworth Park.

Allan scored with a flicked header from a Brian Parker cross five minutes before full-time to put Pan Hellenic in an excellent position to challenge Marconi for the fourth semi-final spot.

Marconi coach Rale Rasic claimed afterwards that Pan Hellenic's scoring move had been five metres offside.

Fifteen minutes earlier Chris Thamnidis missed a glorious opportunity to put Pan Hellenic ahead when he shot wide from the penalty spot.

The penalty was awarded when Marconi's full-back Paul Degney handled in a goalmouth scramble.

Marconi could be rated unfortunate not to have at least gained a draw. They dominated mid-field for most of the game and only lacked punch up front.

Dave Keddie in particular had a poor game as he was unable to elude the tight-marking Richie Bell.

Hellenic relied on quick, precise breaks and in the second half managed to out-gun Marconi, firing in at least twice as many shots on goal.

The loss was Marconi's third in a row and their third without scoring.

Pan Hellenic now have every opportunity to make the playoff.

Robertson sent off

GRANVILLE 2 (Robertson own goal, Marshall). HAKOAH 2 (Stevenson, Honeyman). Crowd: 275.

A 10-man Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs came from behind to draw 2-2 with Granville in their deferred match at Garside Park last Wednesday night.

Defender Alec Robertson received his marching orders after 20 minutes, leaving Hakoah to pick themselves up from a two-goal deficit and salvage a point.

In the 11th minute a 30-metre shot by full-back Kevin Mullen skimmed the Granville crossbar.

But Granville went ahead nine minutes when a shot by winger Gary Northcote was deflected into his own net by Robertson and after a scuffle in the Hakoah goalmouth Robertson was ordered from the field by referee Henry Witschge.

Despite continued domination of the midfield, Hakoah were never allowed to get within shooting range for the rest of the first half.

Three minutes after the interval Granville increased their lead against the run of play.

A long clearance found Billy Frazer in position to flick the ball to centre-forward Stan Marshall who scored with an easy shot from 15 metres.

Hakoah reduced the leeway in the 71st minute when John Stevenson scored from 20 metres.

Then Hakoah scored the equaliser five minutes from the end. Full-back Kevin Mullen made a long run and crossed into the goalmouth for inside-forward Graham Honeyman to head home.

Muniz back with bang!

HAKOAH 2 (Stevenson, Smith). AUBURN 0. Crowd: 879.

Socceroo midfielder Agenor Muniz, back after suspension, spearheaded Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs to a 2-0 win over Auburn at Mona Park.

He engineered Hakoah's first goal by flicking the ball from a free kick to half back John Stevenson who hit into the roof of the net from close range in the 37th minute.

Earlier, Auburn's goalkeeper Steve Hoszowski, returning after a 10-week lay-off with a broken hand, made some great saves to keep Hakoah out.

However, a great save at the other end by Hakoah goalkeeper Todd Clarke denied Auburn the equaliser.

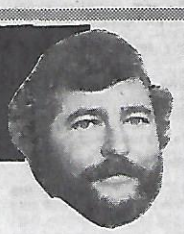
Clarke stopped a point-blank drive from half-back Ron Cornett in the 62nd minute after the Hakoah defence was caught flat-footed in a breakaway Auburn raid.

Hakoah went further ahead in the 71st minute with a well-taken goal by Terry Smith.

Stevenson tested Hoszowski with a hard 30-metre shot which the goalkeeper could only punch into the path of Smith, who scored from ten metres out.

THE SYDNEY SCENE

with BRIAN MOSSOP



Pressure on APIA in big clash with Hakoah

Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs and APIA will be the focus of attention when they meet in the match-of-the-round at Wentworth Park on Sunday.

With St George facing a relatively easy task against tailenders Manly at Hurstville Oval, APIA must win to stay in touch.

But while APIA nudged Hakoah out 3-2 in their earlier meeting this season, Hakoah, as is their style, are coming home far more strongly.

Comfortably positioned in third place, Hakoah are certain of a place in the championship semi-finals without being a premiership threat.

So the pressure will be far more keenly felt by APIA, trailing on goal difference but level on points with Saints.

Marconi's sudden slump should take a turn for the better against Auburn at Marconi Oval, and with Pan Hellenic now level on points, every match will count if Marconi hope to make the four.

But while Granville are certain to have recovered their composure, shattered by Sutherland last Saturday, Pan Hellenic should capture both points from their meeting at Garside Park.

Western Suburbs and Wollongong City will have to back up twice within four days after meeting in their deferred match at the Wollongong Showground tonight (Wednesday).

Both sides are out of the running for the semis, and both face hard matches on Sunday — Wests against South Sydney at Drummoyne and City against Sutherland at Berkeley Sports Ground.

Willie Wallace to the rescue

APIA 1 (Wallace), WESTERN SUBURBS 0. Crowd: 2290.

A touch of professionalism from Scottish international Willie Wallace gave APIA a 1-0 win over Western Suburbs at Lambert Park to keep them in touch with leaders St George.

Wallace crashed to the ground as he buried the ball in Wests' net from six metres range in the 65th minute after World Cup mid-fielder Jim Rooney and replacement forward Roy McCormack had figured in the movement.

APIA created more opportunities than Wests in a tense and exciting encounter.

An out of touch John Doyle, joint top scorer in the First Division, blasted the ball over the bar from right under the posts in the 28th minute and later was replaced by an alert McCormack.

Doyle was not the only APIA offender in missing goals — Ken Wilson, Terry Butler and Billy Rogers all missed scoring by narrow margins.

Wilson played a big part in setting up APIA's attack but failed to turn his opportunities into goals.

On the day APIA owed much of their success to right back Bob McGinn who gave an exceptional display in both attack and defence.

McGinn drove his team ahead mercilessly in the first half during the periods in which Wests strung their passes together with good judgement.

Wests were extremely unlucky not to have scored in the 17th minute when Tom Morrow breached APIA's defence only to have his shot brilliantly blocked by APIA goalkeeper David McQuire.

Wests lost their brave young goalkeeper, 18-year-old Wal Lachowicz, in the 69th minute after he succumbed to a series of bruising knocks around the legs.

He was replaced by veteran Terry Eaton who gave a splendid display to keep his goal intact in the closing minutes whilst APIA were asserting their superiority.

Griffiths, Herron sparkle

SUTHERLAND 7 (Griffiths 2, Bourke, Herron, Wykes, Watkiss, Barton own goal). GRANVILLE 0. Crowd: 643.

Sutherland recorded their highest win since entering the first division in 1971 by annihilating Granville 7-0 at Seymour Shaw Park.

Sutherland ran riot with three goals in the first half and four after the break in a highly-entertaining game which had moments of brilliant football, a player sent off and a penalty saved.

It took Sutherland only 90 seconds to score their first two goals, both coming from the strong running of forward Alan Griffiths.

After 40 seconds Griffiths' shot was blocked and Alan Bourke headed the rebound home.

Fifty seconds later another rebound from a Griffiths' shot was helped into the back of the net by Granville defender Mark Barton.

Sutherland continued to tear the pathetic Granville defence apart and added their third goal after 16 minutes with a clever back-heeler by Jim Herron.

Twenty minutes later Granville midfield player Ian Bendall was sent off by World Cup referee Tony Boskovic for "violent conduct after receiving a previous caution" and from then on whatever chance Granville had disappeared.

Playing smoothly, Sutherland were driven on by the mid-field skills of John McDonald and Gerry Walker and added three goals in nine minutes.

Seven minutes from time Griffiths completed the rout with a 30-metre drive for his second goal.

Despite Granville's weak resistance nothing could detract from the brilliant performance of the Sutherland team.

Both Griffiths and Herron had immaculate games and have developed a good understanding.

With a strong midfield and sound defence Sutherland have now collected eight out of a possible 10 from their past five games.

SAINTS' PRE-MATCH TACTICS PAY OFF

ST GEORGE 3 (Morgan 2, Williams), SOUTH SYDNEY 1 (Sullivan). Crowd: 2010.

A goal two minutes from full time helped St George maintain their place at the top of the table with an unimpressive 3-1 win over South Sydney at the Marks Field.

Along with APIA, St George are on 31 points but are ahead on goal difference.

Their win was not sealed until the dying moments when Australian full-back Harry Williams scored after a throw-in.

His World Cup team-mate Atti Abonyi sent over the well-placed cross for Williams to chip over the keeper's head.

Maurice Sullivan of Souths opened the scoring in the 21st minute by turning an angled free kick into the net from close range.

This set the match pattern, with all goals scored from set plays.

St George's lanky Neville Morgan rose high to head home a free kick from Australian defender Doug Utjesenovic to level the scores after 32 minutes.

Both sides worked hard to breach the defence and Souths came close to scoring.

But it was left for Morgan to head home his second goal from a corner kick to put St George 2-1 up after 64 minutes.

Souths came back strongly but St George's pre-match tactics paid off when they counter-attacked quickly to put themselves into scoring positions.

The St George camp was happy with the win as they have always found Souths a difficult opponent.

ALEXANDER 0 MOOROOLBARK 3 (French 9th & 13th, Vaughan penalty 46th)

ALEXANDER: Blasby; V. Bannon, Donaldson, Nelson, Rakovalis; Webster, Gibson (Thompson 59th), Glykokalamos, P. Bannon; Cole, Bozikas.

MOOROOLBARK: Ivanoff; D. Bailey, Vaughan, O'Toole, Williamson; A. Pongho, Thom, Sinclair; Tront (Clarey 73rd.), Rigby, French.

Graham French

If Graham French had been playing for Alexander in the second half of Sunday's game, he probably would have scored six goals instead of two.

With Mooroolbark standing back to defend its 3-0 lead, Alexander had almost all of the play, but it lacked a striker with a nose for goal.

Certainly Alexander has no-one of French's goalscoring ability.

French opened the scoring as early as the ninth minute.

Alexander centre back Alex Nelson had the ball at the edge of the penalty area. Goalkeeper Peter Blasby called for it and while Nelson hesitated, French nipped behind him and speared the ball into goal from off Nelson's feet.

Star midfielder Dave Rigby was playing as centre forward in the first half, and he was excellent there.

In the 13th minute Rigby headed a free kick wide to French on his right and French headed home expertly over stranded Blasby.

Seconds after half time French stormed towards goal and was fouled from behind by Peter Donaldson.

The referee awarded Mooroolbark a penalty and Peter Vaughan lined up to take the kick.

He missed, but because Nick Rakovalis had entered the area, Vaughan was allowed to take it again and this time he scored, although Blasby managed to get his hand to the shot.

In the 50th minute Mooroolbark goalkeeper Lou Ivanoff dislocated a finger. He had it taped and saved one-handed for the rest of the game.

Keith Webster, Mike Glykokalamos and Pat Bannon gave Alexander an overwhelming advantage in midfield during the second half, but there was simply no power up front.

Barry O'Toole and Peter Vaughan stood back calmly in defence, clearing everything that came their way.

The absence of injured strikers George Gillan and Jim Brand had a lot to do with Alexander's ineffectiveness up front. The absence of John Taylor was the cause of all that shakiness in defence.

Donaldson made embarrassing mistakes. Nelson did too early in the game, but he became steadier.

One shudders to think what would have happened had Pat Bannon and Glykokalamos not been so stout in the back.

Mooroolbark's midfield was disappointing, probably because of the defensive way the team played in the second half.

Kokkinos comes alive!

JUVENTUS 2 (Kokkinos 2 inc. penalty) HAKOAH 0.

JUVENTUS: Harby, Sabadini, Barbieri, Pfisterer, Della Rocca, Marshall, Sabadussi, C. Lucchesi, Vojtek, Kokkinos, J. Lucchesi.

HAKOAH: I. Roberts, Hammond, Lapish, Durand, Jordanou, Baker, Dosen, Nechovoglod, (B. Roberts), Edmondson (sent off), Gadsby, Blair.

Juventus regained some lost form when it easily beat a pitiful Hakoah at Middle Park on Sunday.

Juventus played good soccer but its performance appeared better than it actually was, because Hakoah was hopeless.

Juventus' big test comes next week when it fronts up against Fitzroy Alexander at Olympic Park.

Hakoah coach Sam Myer said after the game that he had plenty of problems which would take a while to iron out.

He added: "My main job is to make sure Hakoah does not get relegated.

"The side is extremely amateurish in most of its ways, and it has no idea what to play.

"The boys lack a lot in fitness and I have stepped up their training programme."

The most pleasing factor about Juventus' win was the dazzling performance of Ulysses Kokkinos.

Kokkinos scored both goals, one a penalty, in his best display since joining the club from Hellas.

Juventus coach Milenko Rusmir believes his side is capable of rolling Alexander on Sunday.

He said: "Our defense played well last week and there were opportunities made for the forwards.

"It was a morale boosting win, and there's no reason why we can't go on from here."

THIS TIME IT'S CROSS TO WIN

George Cross was unlucky to lose 2-3 to Hellas nine weeks ago, when Hellas was playing better than it is now and when George Cross was only starting its recovery.

The teams clash again at Middle Park on Sunday and this time George Cross should win comfortably.

Hellas hasn't looked like a champion team since the second half of its match with Makedonia five weeks ago.

George Cross slipped a little while player- coach Ken Wagstaff was overseas, but returned to its most lethal form against Slavia last Sunday.

Wagstaff has a magic effect on the team. The players draw confidence from him.

With Wagstaff as the focal point, George Cross' attack can't help but succeed.

Paul Murphy is scoring every week and Peter Ebini and Robert Cullen are doing great work on the wings.

The width of the Cross' attack is sure to open gaps in the shaky Hellas defence.

A big problem Hellas has is that Jimmy Mackay has been suffering from an injury.

Peter Bourne filled in brilliantly during the first half last week but was unable to go on with it after half time.

It was understandable, as Bourne has been out of action for so long.

With Mackay and Bourne both firing for 90 minutes, Hellas would be unbeatable.

But as it is, George Cross should be too fast, too fit and too busy for lethargic Hellas.

However, a loss would not make all that much difference. It would mean only that Hellas' lead at the top of the ladder would be cut from five points to three.

It's a nice position to be in. Sunshine City must beat Mooroolbark United at Esther Park if it hopes to return to the top four.

However, Mooroolbark has traditionally had the better of Sunshine, which did not impress in its narrow 2-1 win over Polonia last week.

Alexander has so much difficulty in scoring goals that it may find it difficult to beat improving Juventus at Olympic Park on Sunday.

J.U.S.T., closest to Hellas on the ladder, was lucky to draw against Makedonia, and will find it difficult to break down the strong Slavia defence at Schintler Reserve.

Strengthened by Quinn and McQaude from Scotalnd, Makedonia has turned into a consistent winner and should thrash lacklustre Hakoah at Preston.

The Polonia v. Ringwood game, originally scheduled for Maribyrnong, will be played instead at Jubilee Park, Ringwood.

Polonia's position at the bottom of the ladder now appears hopeless. Ringwood should win without much trouble.

Sunday's matches, with likely winners in capitals:

MAKEDONIA v. Hakoah at Cochrane Reserve. Preston: Juventus v ALEXANDER at Olympic Park; Mooroolbark v. Sunshine (draw) at Esther Park, Mooroolbark; Polonia v. RINGWOOD at Jubilee Park, Ringwood; Hellas v. GEORGE CROSS at Middle Park; FOOTSCRAY J.U.S.T. v. Slavia at Schintler Reserve, Footscray.

Picioane saves the game for J.U.S.T.

MAKEDONIA 1 (McQuade) FOOTSCRAY JUST 1 (Picioane).

MAKEDONIA: Laumets, Trajkovski, Campbell, McCracken, Petrovski, Quinn, Fox, McIntyre, Jones (Bernard), McQuade, Flaherty.

JUST: Boland, Parrot, Kazi, Kriaris, Kondarios, Ilioski, Palinkas, Micic, Picioane, Buljevic, Ristovski.

A last-minute goal by midfielder Joe Picioane gave Footscray JUST a draw with Preston Makedonia at Cochrane Reserve on Sunday.

For 89 minutes Makedonia had been the better side and it was heading for a big upset.

This is the second match in a fortnight that Footscray JUST has managed to scrape out of with a point.

Makedonia was pleased with the showing of new boys John McQuade, Jim Quinn and Brian Flaherty.

McQuade scored his side's goal and was a handy performer.

Makedonia coach Mike de Bruyckere said: "We are on the way and are starting to show that we have something.

"We should have scored a few more goals, as we had JUST under a great deal of pressure.

"Our side will keep on going from here and will improve more."

A feature of the match was the brilliance of goalkeeper Peter Laumets, and his counterpart Dennis Boland.

Frank Campbell played well in defence and Billy McIntyre was active around the ground.

Tommy Fox played his usual steady game.

Footscray JUST coach Cedo Cirkovic said: "I was happy with our performance. Every game is a hard one.

"I don't think we could be classed as lucky because soccer is a funny game and something can happen at any time.

"We were two goals up with 12 minutes to play against Georgie Cross and they ended up drawing with us.

"Our side could have scored more goals, but we missed chances."

SLAVIA WAS PATHETIC!

GEORGE CROSS 3 (Ebini, Murphy, Wagstaff) SLAVIA 0.

GEORGE CROSS, Kastner, McConville, Maitland, Kelly, Barron, Deeming, Webb, Ebini Wagstaff, Murphy, Cullen.

SLAVIA: J. Pinakos, Owens, Tansey, Symington (Patton), O'Reilly, McFarlane (O'Halloran), Murphy, Train, Cain, Gilder, Ripley.

George Cross was not at its best, but Slavia was at its worst.

This sums up the clash which Cross won 3-0 at Olympic Park on Sunday.

Slavia, not the brightest team to watch at any time, was wicked.

It lacked everything and had no system at all.

Good players were non-existent in the Slavia side. It was riddled with poor performers.

The difference between the teams was George Cross leader Ken Wagstaff, Paul Murphy, Robert Cullen and a steadfast defence.

Lanky, quick-thinking, dark-skinned Peter Ebini, set the Cross on its winning way.

He opened the scoring on a breakaway and soon after Paul Murphy made it 2-0 when Wagstaff pulled down a ball, dummied and passed to Murphy.

But the Crossboys were in for something they didn't really expect — a tongue-lashing during the half time interval.

It must have worked because the second half was a lot better than the first in relation to the way the side played.

Wagstaff ran downfield, dummied the defence and banged a 25-yard bullet-like shot, that curved as soon as it left his boot and ended up swinging into the net.

Falzon won two Argus Medals

GREATS FROM THE PAST

Defenders rarely make the same impression on the game as talented forwards.

One exception was George Cross' Maltese idol Fred Falzon.

Having represented Malta about 10 times, he left Hamrun Spartans in 1961 to come to Australia. He was 26 years old.

In his first season with George Cross, he won the Argus Medal as the best and fairest player in the league, a feat equalled only once by a full back when Vince Bannon did it in his first season with Alexander.

Falzon also won the Argus Medal the following year, in 1962.

Only John Gardiner, now of Essendon Lions, has won a league best and fairest award in successive years.

Falzon had six spectacular seasons with George Cross whose star-studded defence also featured Eddy Sacco, Vince Muscat and goalkeeper Norm Hobson.

He transferred to Sydney club Pan Hellenic for about $4,000, returned to Malta and joined Melita Eagles in Sydney when he come back to Australia.

A fearsome looking player on the feld, Falzon was almost unbeatable. At the same time, however, he was extremely fair.

OUR PLAYERS NEED A UNION!

Bill Buchanan

BILL BUCHANAN PLAYS FOR DANDENONG IN THE VICTORIAN SECOND DIVISION. HE WAS PREVIOUSLY WITH STATE LEAGUE CLUB SLAVIA AND HAS ALSO PLAYED IN SYDNEY, PERTH, HONG KONG AND SCOTLAND.

You may have read in last week's "Soccer Action" that I am trying to start a Victorian Players' Union.

The reason is simple.

I know from personal experience that if any problem arises between a player and his club, the player is usually the loser.

Soccer is big business. The clubs are the employers and the players the employees, and as such should have the right of fair representation in the event of trouble between the two parties.

From having asked around, I know that most players think it is pointless to go to the Victorian Soccer Federation about disputes.

They tell me the federation seems more concerned about its finances than the welfare of individual players.

The players also have the wrong attitude.

Most of them are worried only about their own contract and an "I'm all right, Jack" attitude seems to prevail.

So, through "SOCCER ACTION", let's try to get a players' union off the ground.

I urge all you players to write either to Players' Union, C/- "Soccer Action", 250 Spencer Street, Melbourne, or to my own address, Flat 5, 14 May Street, Elwood.

Tell us how you feel about the idea of a union.

Tell us why you think we need one and also, tell us whether you would be willing to help me organise it.

Help from Scotland

Let's try to have a union on a sound footing by the start of next season.

I have already written to the secretary of the Scottish Players' Union for a complete dossier on the running of that organisation.

This information will help us set up our union along the right lines.

This union would be open to all players. No-one would be regarded as insignificant, the way they so often are by their clubs.

Get out your pen and paper and write now!

Makedonia aims high with Scottish recruits

Strengthened by three Scottish players — one of whom has had senior games with Celtic — Makedonia aims to finish among the State League top four.

The former Celtic man is Jim Quinn, who switched to Sheffield Wednesday in England after playing 21 games for the Glasgow club.

Born in Kilsyth, Scotland, Quinn is 5ft. 9ins and weights 11 stone.

He was as a full back in Scotland and England but played his first match for Makedonia as a striker.

Makedonia's other new players are Brian Flaherty, 23, and John McQuade, 25.

Flaherty played as a winger with Morton in Scotland and McQuade was with Hamilton Academicals and Dundee.

Makedonia official Branko Trajanovski is confident that the club can finish in the top four with these reinforcements.

Phil shines

WOLLONGONG 2 (O'Connor 2), MANLY 1 (Mallam). Crowd: 600.

Striker Phil O'Connor notched both Wollongong City goals in their comfortable 2-1 win over Manly in a scrappy match at Cromer Park.

Wollongong opened the scoring in the tenth minute when O'Connor netted from a penalty kick after one of the Wollongong players was brought down heavily on the edge of the box.

Wollongong scored their second goal in the 73rd minute from the best move of the match.

O'Connor pushed the ball neatly through for Peter Beggs whose solid shot was only partly blocked by Manly goalie Ron Corry.

O'Connor was then quickly in position to pick up the loose ball and crash it into the top of the net.

Ken Mallam picked up a stray pass in the 87th minute and his hard low shot completely beat Wollongong goalie Fabian Fabrianisi for Manly's sole score against the run of play.

Wollongong only looked dangerous when they brought O'Connor into the play but for some reason they were reluctant to use him for most of the match.

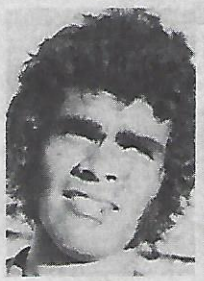
BIG LEAGUE IMPORTS MAY BE OUR DOWNFALL



Harry Williams . . .

Mendo Ristovski . . .

Kevin Mullen . . .

Paul Degney . . .

With all the talk about importing players en masse for the national league, I wonder what will happen to our own local players.

I've heard none of the national league clubs talk about the type of junior structure they will have next year, and what emphasis they will put on juniors.

RALE RASIC

Clubs must be forced to use four locals

At the moment, we have a rule in Sydney that every team must include a minimum of four local players. Will this rule be retained in the national league?

These questions are so far unanswered.

Instead, all we hear is that there will be importation of players on a greater scale than ever before in Australian soccer history.

The trouble is, these players will be of a lower standard than those we imported in the first big wave, about 15 years ago.

At that time, Australia was not a member of FIFA, meaning we were able to poach top-line players from Europe without paying transfer fees.

Also, overseas players were not receiving big money at home, so they had nothing to lose by coming to Australia.

Players like Stankovic, Dunaj, Baumgartner, Jaros, Zientara, Jankowski and others who came here in the early 1960s did much to boost the game here, because they were ball-playing crowd pleasers.

The approach to football today is entirely different.

British players especially are drilled into a pattern of direct football which lacks frills but is tailored to win games as efficiently as possible.

These players are not crowd-pullers the way Stankovic and company were.

According to my calculations, the national league clubs will import at least 80 players between them.

In this mad rush, let's consider the fact that if players are available to come to Australia, they will, in most cases, be not much better than the players we can produce here, or the imports we already have.

In that case, why not import top coaches instead? They could develop a junior coaching system, a scouting system and a firm base for professional management.

If the national league clubs worry only about the senior teams, they will be cutting their own throats.

Of course I must agree that we can't do without a certain amount of imports, but in selecting them, let's set the highest possible standard.

Every club should import between two and four top-class men in the $200-a-week-class.

Instead of sending them out to work in a factory during the week, the clubs should use them to coach juniors and set a firm foundation for the club's future.

In addition to these stars, each club should have a minimum of four local players. This number should be increased by one every two years, until we reach a total of say, seven locals.

Another thing that must be approached carefully is the proposed guest player system, under which national league clubs will invite soccer super-stars to Australia for a few guest appearances.

We've had a number of such visits in recent years.

You'll remember that neither Osgood nor Antoniadis were impressive with Hakoah, probably because they were here for such a short time.

Francis Lee certainly did not make an impression with St George.

The only star who did show true professionalism, an enthusiastic willingness to co-operate and 100 per cent effort on the field was Dimitri Papaiannou who recently played two games for Fitzroy Alexander.

Spectators who come to watch these men play want to get their money's worth. We must ensure that they are satisfied.

While talking about spectators, let me repeat something I have said in previous articles.

Because of the diverse origins of our soccer public, we have demands for varying styles of play.

What comes through loud and clear is that the crowd demands spectacle ahead of sport.

British players are not drilled to sell the game with fancy footwork.

They are drilled to play it hard and direct, whereas many of our fans want to see frills instead.

This is a problem we must face up to in trying to popularise the game.

The recent importation of South American players has given the crowd what it wants, but has created problems within the teams.

The main problem is that the South American and the British styles are so diverse that it is extremely difficult to blend players of both types into one team.

Hilton Silva of Hakoah found it difficult to be accepted in a team comprised mainly of Scottish players.

Dimitri Papaiannou — he's the only guest "super star" who has given the fans their money's worth.

Agenor Muniz was sold by Hakoah to Pan Hellenic for a mere $1500 before he finally hit the big-time.

At my own club, Marconi, we get a lot of criticism about Roaul Carrizo. They say he holds the ball too long, but they don't understand that when he does so, the pressure is off the rest of the team.

In the past, we've been lucky in getting the good South Americans we now have.

However, if you want men of the calibre of Campana, Fernandez, Rodriguez and Blanco, you have to pay big money for them.

The same applies to Germans, Italians or Greeks...

There are other problems associated with South Americans. They take a long time to settle down, for example because they find it hard to acclimatise and communicate. Obviously, there is a language problem.

Also, the referees would have to adopt a different attitude if we are to have more South Americans.

From what I've seen, a South American will be cautioned for pulling an opponent's shirt, but if an Australian kicks someone's legs from under him, he is let off scot free.

At the moment, skill is not protected by the referees, because they have become used to a different style of play.

The problem of contrasting styles within a single team is of course, not a new one.

Some teams do not have the patience to put up with a Buljevic, Gnavi, Abonyi, Vojtek, Gardiner, Stankovic etc.

When Abonyi takes on players to beat them and win open space, he must lose the ball eight out of 10 times to achieve his aim.

When Buljevic stands on the ball waiting for the right moment, he may strike that moment only one out of 10 times, but when he does, he can win the game.

This type of play requires patience from fellow team members, patience which often is not there.

The reason: a simple conflict of styles.

Traditionally the successful teams in Australia are teams made up of similar players.

Polonia was wildly successful in Melbourne when it had only Polish players.

Alexander won the State League last year with mainly Scottish players.

Hakoah Eastern Suburbs does well with a Scottish team.

Footscray J.U.S.T. plays mainly Yugoslavs.

I can go on and on.

Duncan Cummings . . . all as good or better than most imports.

What it adds up to is that if we are to import South American ball-players and skillful players from other countries — like Hakoah's Bertie Lutton, for example — the coaches will have to have a special knack for blending this style with the traditional British style.

But, like I said early in this article, the most important thing is to make sure we do not ignore our own local players.

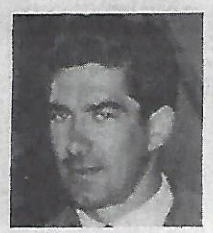
This list is proof that we can produce local players who are much better than the average import:

Duncan Cummings, Mendo Ristovski, Richie Bell, Paul Degney, Colin Bennett, Harry Williams, Todd Clarke, Allan Maher, Kevin Mullen, Murray Barnes, Mike Micevski, Joe Palinkas, Arthur Xanthopoulos etc. etc.

These players and the ones now growing up must be protected.

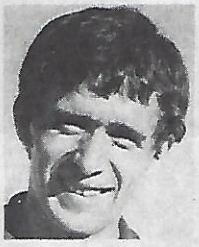
If we do not require clubs to field at least four local players, we will be importing forever and Australian soccer will suffer.

We'll have imports coming here with only one aim — to pick up their money and go home.



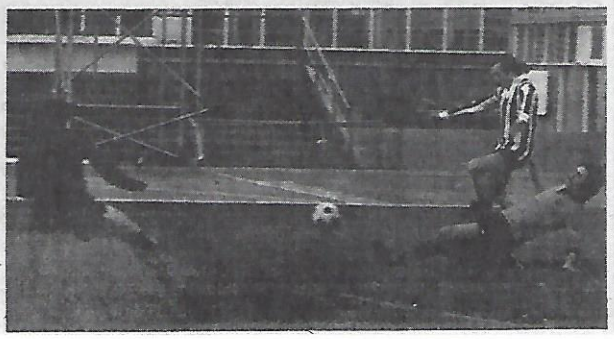
Karl Jaros . . .

Tommy Stankovic . . .



Attila Abonyi (above), Branko Buljevic (right) and Billy Vojtek (riding a tackle, below) — a team needs patience to capitalise on their ball artistry.

Eddy Jankowski . . . we can't get imports like these anymore.



Agenor Muniz (left) and Roaul Carrizo — Brazilians who faced problems in blending with the British style.

From Mulga Bill to Fitzroy Con

How would Banjo Paterson, the greatest chronicler of early Australian social mores, go about describing a hero of our present cosmopolitan society? I have taken the liberty of turning his Mulga Bill into a present soccer hero.

I suggest you read "Mulga Bill's Bicycle" first.

I take this liberty as I have just discovered that he is a relation of mine.

My sister-in-law's uncle was his second cousin. (True).

'Twas Fitzroy Con from Carlton South who caught the soccer craze.
He turned away the fruit market craft that served a week of seven days.
He dressed himself in soccer strip iridescent to be seen,
And hurried off to Latvia that brilliant ethnic team.
As he signed the dotted line and gave his life with pride,
The grinning egotistic coach replied: "Excuse me can you stride?"

"See here old man," said Fitzroy Con, "From Fruit-Stand to the sea,
"From Vegie Patch to Granny Smith there's none can run like me.

"I can shell a pea at twenty yards and flog a dying rose.
"Although I'm not a man to brag, I hate the men that pose.
"But soccer is my special gift my chiefest sole delight.
"Just ask a voyeur can he see, an arson can he light?

"There's nothing sewn of leather round nor made of toe or heel
"There's no one jumps or slides or heads on grass or turf or field
"While stiches keep my panties up, while lace my boot holds tight
"I'll kick this here air-filled concern like a missile guided flight."
'Twas Fitzroy Con from Carlton South who chose the soccer code.

He turned his family to the ground next to New Footscray Road.
He laced his boots, he eased his jock, he stormed to show the way
But ere he'd dribbled half a yard the ball was out of play.
It left his boot and took a path at tangent much oblique.
It whistled past the cheering stand in search of Maribyrnong Creek.

It shaved the ref by whisker's hair, it dodged the finemen's blocks,
The aged coach in sheer dismay tore out his ageing locks.
The opposing team, all shat with fright, went diving to the ground.
But Fitzroy Con all red with pride stood firm and with astound.
A second ball into the fray that Fitzroy chased with wicked glee
In glory he was heard to say "Here ends the onion days for me."
He raced with ball towards the goal ignoring whistle, flag and shriek
The very goalie, white with fear, passed out into next week.

'Twas Fitzroy Con oblivious to all who made a twelve-goal score
But all was quiet on the ground except his family's roar.
Now Fitzroy's coach was called in here to save the tattered net.
Trembling he went out alone, his greatest challenge yet,
To tell Fitzroy of rules and referees and such, and off-side to observe
But a greater run he had never seen, twenty men completely robbed of nerve.
As rules removed the fun and pace so soccer lost its greatest son
But to this day the clubs still speak in awe of Fitzroy Con's great run.

YOUTH SOCCER

By BOB QUIMBY, president, Australian Schools Soccer Federation.

Since my announcement on July 14 in Soccer Action about the McDonald's walkathons I have been constantly asked for more details.

☆ ☆ ☆

About three weeks before the walkathon at each store, each school and any local club that requests them, will be sent forms. The complete list of dates will be announced next week. This should be an enjoyable family outing — for all to get fit and be involved together. Regardless of the money raised, we want as many families as possible.

☆ ☆ ☆

Prizes. Yes there will be prizes — four prizes in each age group at each store. Age groups — under 9, 11, 14, 16 and senior. The complete list of winners will be displayed at McDonald's within seven days. Be in the fun, join the walkers and get fit, commencing on August 22.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Australian Schools Soccer Federation hopes to have available by August 23 a wall chart on common injuries.

A special primary school sub-committee has been formed under Jack Dodd, to investigate ways in which the Australian schools body can assist soccer in primary schools. Brian Pollard, soccer convener, NSW primary schools, will be meeting with the executive in July-August to discuss 1977 activities.

☆ ☆ ☆

Dr Eric Aldin, ACT schools soccer president, has advised that the ACT team in the Coca-Cola Cup will be Phillip College. In Nth NSW, the top four high schools will play off in a special elimination service. The schools are Boorragul, Kotara, Wallsend and Whitebridge. Similarly, Bob McLachlan in Victoria has arranged that the top two high schools will play the top two technical schools to decide the Coca-Cola Cup school to represent Victoria.

☆ ☆ ☆

Murray Leach, secretary of the N.Z.Schools Football Association, could be special guest at the 10th national schools U/18 championship. He will be in Australia to discuss future schools internationals between Australia and N.Z.

☆ ☆ ☆

Finally, a soccer skill competition will be held at McDonald's Bexley and McDonald's Belmont. If this is successful there will be a national skills competition involving all McDonald's stores next year.

The skills competition will be run in U/12 and U/14 age divisions for both boys and girls. Entry forms will be available at McDonald's Bexley and Belmont. If interest is high in Victoria we will also run one at St Kilda.

WITH THE JUNIORS

Chasing the Cup

Moreland Juniors, under the watchful eye of their president, Mr Pat Contessa, are competing with eight teams this year. At this stage the under tens and the under elevens had made the quarter finals in the cup competition.

The under elevens were formed at the beginning of the '75 season. Mr Vic Chetcuti had a nucleus of four players with two years experience.

They are S. Chetcuti, J. Zubcie, R. Brincat and J. Gambin. Even today these four are hard to beat and often form the backbone of the team's performance.

Under Vic's coaching the team did extremely well in '75. They were runners up in the Yarra North League and in the pre-season Altona Cup '76 were beaten in the grand final by Sunshine Heights.

Since then the team has maintained its top position in the Yarra North league. For the cup series the under elevens have made the quarter final.

Mr Chetcuti lives for the game. Every match is a battle of tactics. His interest in chess is noticeable on the field.

His strategy has been successful due to the fact that the players are disciplined and co-ordinate well in their teamwork. What they lack in quality is covered by Chetcuti's tactics.

The under elevens are sponsored by Syd Ellis Motors of 10 Racecourse Rd, North Melbourne.

A GREAT START

Collingwood City (Princes Park) Hercules, is doing well with its newly founded under 12 side.

In its first season of competition, the team has surprised everybody.

Goalkeeper Steve Theodropoulos has shown potential in his first year of soccer and the top scorers are Nick Englezakis and Michael Mamasis.

Collingwood City plans to field more under age teams.

The senior section of the club, called Princes Park, will change its name to Collingwood City as from next year.

Coach of the successful under 12 side is Angelo Feretis, a member of the senior side and leading goalscorer in the Second Division of the Metropolitan League.

Spain the star factory

Who will be the 1976 European Footballer of the Year?

Kevin Keegan of Liverpool must be in the running. Franz Beckenbauer of Bayern Munich is among the hot favorites, Paul Breitner of Real Madrid has a big chance.

Whoever wins the award, his name will be added to an honor roll of the all-time greats of soccer.

Spain has the reputation for producing the most European Footballers of the Year.

Since the award started in 1956, seven Spanish-based players have won the coveted trophy.

However, on three occasions, the player was not a native Spaniard. Frenchman Raymond Kopa won in 1958, while playing for Real Madrid and Dutchman Johann Cruyff won two of his record three awards while playing for Barcelona.

Cruyff won his first trophy while with Ajax Amsterdam in 1971. When he won again in 1973 he played half a season with Ajax and completed the year in Spain.

In 1974, when he became the first player to win the award three times, he played the entire season for Barcelonia.

The only other player who has been Footballer of the Year more than once is the great Alfredo di Stefano of Real Madrid who won in 1957 and 1959.

Of all the winners, six have been in Australia on tour with their clubs

— Stanley Matthews, Lev Yashin, Denis Law, Bobby Charlton, Florian Albert and George Best.

The award has gone to England four times. The winners were Stanley Matthews of Blackpool in 1956, Denis Law of Manchester United in 1964, Bobby Charlton of Manchester United in 1966 and George Best, also of Manchester United, in 1968.

Manchester United, Real Madrid and Barcelonia have had three winners each.

MONTREAL — Spain's Santiago Idigoras (No. 9) appears to be giving East Germany's Lothar Kurbjuweit a knee kick to the head in an Olympic match which East Germany won 1-0.

OLYMPIC SOCCER PUSHED INTO THE BACKGROUND

As far as Australia is concerned, soccer is the most minor sport of the Olympic Games.

Our nationwide marathon TV coverage of the Games has brought into our living room everything from water polo to volleyball, but you'd have to be quick to see even a fleeting glimpse of a soccer ball.

It amazes us that countless Australian television commentators could be shipped off to Canada without a briefing on the importance of the Olympic soccer tournament, especially this year.

We're sure these commentators had no idea that the fortunes of Israel, Iran and North Korea should have been monitored closely, for these three nations will be among our World Cup rivals next year.

And wouldn't it have been worth mentioning one of the true upsets of the Games — Cuba's shock draw with mighty Poland?

Television is not the only medium that has ignored Olympic soccer.

Look at the daily Press and you'll find only the barest minimum.

Match descriptions have been impossible to find. Even Cuba's feat was ignored.

The Soviet Union has rated mentions in all its other achievements at these Games, but its soccer progress has been overlooked.

Brazil is a triple world champion, but it too is ignored, as is East Germany, one of the powers of the 1974 World Cup.

The Olympic tournament enters the semi-finals today (Wednesday). Maybe soccer fans will be treated to two seconds of coverage on television.

If not, let's at least hope for a flash score of the final!

By the way, in case you haven't been able to find out anywher else, the semi-finalists are Poland, Brazil, USSR and East Germany.

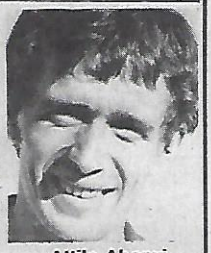
Graham French, Mooroolbark's goal-scoring ace, will be guest columnist for the next two issues.



Attila Abonyi

St George and Australian striker Attila Abonyi, answers questions in today's edition.

Q: Is it likely that you will return to Victoria one day to coach your old team Melbourne? (Question by Garry Kovacs, Payne St, Tullamarine, VIC).

A: It's funny you should ask that, Garry, because it has entered my mind.

If I every do return to Victoria, I would like to coach my old club.

But I have no definite plans, and I would want to play for at least another three years.

Playing is my main worry and that's what I am concentrating on.

However to coach Melbourne is something I would like to do.

Q: What people have had the biggest influence on your career? (Question by Peter Robertson, Haering Rd, Boronia, VIC)

My father and my wife have had the biggest influence on me.

My father Joseph took over coaching the Melbourne juniors in 1961, and from this time on he had a great deal to do with my career.

One thing he never did was push me, or force me to do something when I was young.

My wife Marian has been a wonderful help to me. She gives me tons of encouragement and never misses a game.

From a player's point of view, Johnny Warren has taught me a lot.

We have been good friends for a long time and I really admire his personality and attitude to the game.

Q: Do you think the national league will be a success? (Question by Paulo Stanning, Bridge Rd, Richmond, VIC).

A: Something had to be done about the set-up of soccer in Australia and the national league is a step forward.

But I'm not quite sure if it will be a goer. A lot of clubs will find it hard to cope from a financial viewpoint.

However this will be offset largely by the standard, which will improve greatly.

The standard must go up, because a better class of soccer will be played.

I don't know what affect the national league will have on local State competitions.

Q: What is the future of soccer in Australia? (Question by Stanley Pettigrew, Sydney Rd, Brunswick, VIC).

A: The standard, and attendances at matches, was much better and bigger 10 years ago.

I honestly believe the game has dropped back a bit since then.

Australia is not a great sporting nation and this is where we are totally different to the European countries.

There is not as much interest in sport as there should be.

We just have to look at what we've done in the Olympic Games in Montreal to realise our apathy.

A good example is a Saturday.

The pubs are packed and there will be thousands and thousands of people gambling on a race meeting at Flemington, while a couple of hundred turn up and watch athletic championships at Olympic Park. That's not sport in my opinion.

Interest in Australian soccer picked up when we made the World Cup finals a few years back, but overall the sport has not progressed.

Martin wins World Cup quiz

Martin Kubincan of Heron Court, Dingley, Vic., is the winner of last week's World Cup quiz.

Martin wins a Stellar Star Quality soccer ball worth about $20 from Habbe Sports, corner of Burwood Highway and Warrigal Road, Burwood, Vic.

He can pick up his prize at the shop.

This week's prize is again a Stellar Star Quality ball from Habbe Sport.

Just answer the questions and send them to "World Cup", c/- "Soccer Action," 250 Spencer Street, Melbourne, 3001.

This week's questions:

1. In which country was Australian midfielder Agenor Muniz born?
2. Who was the top scorer of the 1974 World Cup finals?
3. Which of the following countries did Australia have to play against to reach the finals in 1974 — Canada, Fiji, USSR, Hungary, Indonesia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Kuwait, Iran.
4. Who is the Australian player who was sent off the field during our scoreless draw with Chile in the 1974 finals?
5. In which two German cities did Australia play in the 1974 finals?
6. The 1974 World Cup winner, West Germany, lost only one game in the finals. Which country beat West Germany?
7. How many times has Italy won the World Cup?
8. Which clubs do the following Australian national team players play for: Allan Maher, Richie Bell, Dave Harding, Jimmy Rooney.
9. For which countries do the following players play: Jovan Acimovic, Dino Zoff, Martin Buchan.
10. Who is the coach of West Germany?

Reilly to run clinics

Australia's 1974 World Cup goalkeeper Jack Reilly wants to run goalkeeping clinics at the Fitzroy Cricket Ground every Monday night.

Reilly, now coach of Alexander, wants to hear from young goalkeepers or from clubs who would be interested in the clinics.

He said if he gets a reasonable response — say about 20 goalkeepers — he will start the clinics.

If you're interested, give Reilly a ring on 61 2061 (day) or 69 2097 (evening).

NZ team to visit Victoria

A New Zealand junior side will visit Melbourne late next month and play four matches.

A squad of 16 boys representing the Western under 13 team from Christchurch will make the tour.

The team will play Box Hill on Wednesday August 25, Croydon on August 27, Waverley on August 29 and Mooroolbark on August 31.

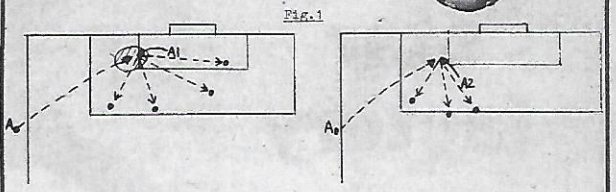
Tapping the schools

Second division club Doveton recruits players at a raw and tender age.

The club has an amicable association with six local primary schools in the hope that one day it may be rewarded with an abundance of class players.

State director of coaching, Ron Smith, visited Doveton last Tuesday to start a month-long coaching clinic for the senior and junior sides.

During training he presented soccer balls and books of representatives of the schools on behalf of the club.



LONG THROW IS A BIG ADVANTAGE

Players who have the ability to throw the ball a long way are an asset in any situation, especially in the attacking third of the field.

If used to full advantage, the long throw can pose a serious threat to the opposing defence. Goal scoring opportunities can be created from a throw-in, when the ball is thrown into or around the goal area.

If the ball can be thrown into the goal area, beyond the near post, other players may be able to get a direct strike at goal.

If the ball arrives in front of the near post, a direct head at goal is very unlikely; but if the ball is headed across the face of the goal, scoring opportunities can be created.

Players who move to head the ball should remember two things:

(a) The timing of the run to meet the throw;

(b) The angle of the run.

In Fig. 1, the shaded area indicates where the ball will be thrown. The player who is to head the ball should aim to arrive in that area at the same time as the ball.

The angle of the run into the space is most important, if the ball is to be played across the face of the goal.

A player (A1) who makes a flat run into the space, will be able to head the ball through a wide angle and with more control, because of his body position.

A player who starts his run from position (A2) will not be able to direct the ball through as wide a range as player (A1), because of the limited rotation of the head.

Try it for yourself.

Ban grown-ups not the kids!

A view from the junior ranks
BY LEIF JENSEN

Once again someone is having a go at our kids playing competitive soccer at the tender age of eight years. Why don't you just leave the kids alone and look in the right direction before wanting to ban things?

You will find that the only thing wrong with competition at that age is meddling adults, usually people who have never coached 8, 9 or 10 year olds. And I would like to try to convey to some of you just what is wrong with most of the reasons you put forward as to why kids should not play in competition at this age.

THE WIN ATTITUDE: There is nothing wrong with a child wanting to win. Little John and Jim will have a race going home from school to see who gets to the next corner first, but what is missing is a parent who screams at Johnny because he lost the race. John and Jim will finish up at the lolly-shop having an ice cream together.

So, parents, let the kids play their games and enjoy the game. Try to shout encouragement instead of abuse, let the coach do the calling (not screaming) during the game, and straight away we have done away with one of the worst elements in junior sports.

Try to call: "Bad luck, try again," or when you see some nice things done, clap the boys and call: "Well done, boys." Both the boys and yourself will start to enjoy the games a lot more.

THE SKILLS OF THE GAME: Anyone who talks about the skills of the game at the age of eight must be kidding. Boys at that age are not worried about skills. They want a game, and why not?

Why try to push skills down their throat at that age? Why not just show them how to kick a ball correctly, positional play on the field and how to pass the ball to each other? Let their training be little games between themselves with the coach correcting a few things without stopping their game too often.

And the reward for good training should be their game on a Saturday morning which every little boy I know is looking forward to all week.

To score a goal in a proper game is like Christmas to a boy that age, so why take that away from him? If you do, I would call you spoilsports.

CONTROL OF THE GAME: In Victoria the JLMC is, in my opinion, doing a wonderful job, which with a few modifications could be perfect.

Such things as grading teams for more even competition is a must for next year, leaving the passport rule as it is is another must for the protection of the boys, so at least they know they are playing against boys their own age.

If referees (and some already do this) could be asked when they blow the whistle to explain to the boys why he stopped the game the boys would soon get to know the rules. Coaches should tell the boys that you do not argue with a referee's decisions and to play the whistle. Most important, parents should not get involved with the running of the actual game. Leave that to the officials appointed and qualified to do so.

So, parents (and some coaches) spur your boys on, but apart from that shut up! The whole game will improve if you do. Try it next time.

I will continue this column next week on the same subject, but in the meantime write to me about whether you think I am right or wrong.

Reward for patience

Good judges say patience is a virtue.

And patience can also be rewarding.

Ask Steven Yodgee.

Steven, 11, a member or the Rosebud under 14 team, proved his capabilities in the side's recent clash with South Dandenong.

For the past seven matches Steven has sat on the bench as a reserve, not complaining about the situation.

When he came on against South Dandenong, Steven wasted no time in making himself useful.

He scored a goal and was responsible for sealing the match 4-2 for his side.

Another lad on the sideline is Neil Anderson, who keeps turning up every week supporting the team.

It is this type of attitude that has made the club so successful.

Two other players, Ian Belsten and Graham Keegan, also excel in this department.

The under nine side is playing well and winning most of its games.

Vincent Mitchell, a scorer, was a good player in the team's good away win against Mornington.

The under 11 team showed its fighting spirit and dedication by coming back strongly and drawing 2-2 with Seaford.

Luke Fowler and David Mathison were the scorers, and the two best players in a great all-round team effort were Stuart Dixon and Rohan White.

THE BEST SOCCER BOOKS AROUND

This book has been written to present the experience of The Football Association over the years in the fields of coaching and training. It is written by the F.A.'s Director of Coaching who says: 'A Coach's aim is to find the most economical way of causing a player to become a better player ... 'Mr Wade, himself, had found a most economical and lucid way of putting across this generalization in print. For the sake of clarity he has divided the book into three parts: First — Principles, Systems, and Tactics of the Game; Second — Principles of Training and Training Methods; Third — Definition and Acquisition of Skill. The text is presented in a manner that will make it clearly understood to player and coach alike and it will be an important addition to the sports libraries of schools. Keyed to the text, and making the reader's progress both easier and more instructive, are over 140 line drawings and over 60 photographic illustrations. A special feature of this book are the training schedules. For the professional player, specimen schedules are offered for both off-season and in-season training, while for the amateur, which includes schoolboy and youth players, programmes fitted to the needs of footballers with limited time and facilities are separately drafted. Specialized training for goalkeepers is also recommended, as being in a department necessarily distinct from other positions on the field of play. The theme of the book takes full account of modern tactical development and emphasizes the need for the modern footballer to 'read the game' and understand the systems and tactics that are outlined.

JACK TAYLOR WORLD SOCCER REFEREE

Jack Taylor with David Jones

JACK TAYLOR's handling of the 1974 World Cup Final between West Germany and Holland is held up as an example by every football nation. For from the first explosive minute of that match in Munich, when Holland were awarded a penalty after Johan Cruyff had been brought down by Hoeness, Taylor's decisions carried the genuine stamp of the world's No 1 referee.

Taylor is in demand to referee matches all over the world. His appointments have taken him to nearly 40 different countries and — that Munich World Cup Final apart — he has been involved in all the major football events, including two other World Cup tournaments, the World Club Championship, the European Cup Final and the FA Cup Final.

The book also includes valuable contributions from some of the game's greatest thinkers — men like England manager Ron Revie; Bill Shankly, the former manager of Liverpool; Derek Dougan, the articulate Chairman of the Professional Footballers Association; and A. D. McMullen, a member of the International Board, Chairman of the FA Referees' Committee and a member of the UEFA Referees' Committee.

The Metro Scene with LES SHORROCK

Who's responsible for the leak?

FIRST DIVISION

Discussions on the future of the VSF after the departure of four clubs to the national league are still taking place and they vitally affect the Metro League for this reason.

I was dismayed to read last Sunday the details of the meeting between representatives of the remaining eight State League clubs held last Thursday, particularly as the Press was asked not to attend the meeting, it being held behind closed doors.

The Soccer Press Association, by pure coincidence, held a meeting in a downstairs room at Soccer House, and they came upstairs to the boardroom, but were told that no press statement would be issued.

A committee of four club representatives, namely John van Hoboken, Vito Cilauro, Michael Weinstein and myself, was elected to discuss amendments of the Metro League proposals with John Barclay and Michael McCulloch of the Metro League on Monday.

But one of the four leaked the news to a journalist, who incidentally does not belong to the Soccer Press Association.

This breach of faith will not, I believe, jeopardise the friendly atmosphere of the discussions, but it does leave a taste in the mouth.

The eight remaining State League clubs went out of their way to reassure the NSL clubs that they were welcome to stay in the Federation, as did the Metro League management committee at its monthly meeting.

The sensations last week were not confined to League meetings. In the First Division Altona, having dropped a point on Saturday, had to wait with bated breath to see whether they had lost their League leadership, but Green Gully did even worse by dropping a home point, and the two are still locked together five points ahead of Frankston.

Frankston must be sick of travelling fruitlessly to the western suburbs, for they lost to another lowly team in St Albans where Ian Cassidy scored the only goal, and to rub it in Billy Lewis of Frankston was sent off for retaliation.

On Sunday Box Hill overcame Keilor City as expected, Ray Taylor scoring the first and Alex Straubinger being unlucky enough to put through his own goal for the second. Late in the game Anschober scored for Keilor City (I believe).

Albion Rovers continue to exasperate their faithful followers with their in and out displays and their seeming inability to score.

One bright spot for Albion was the display of Victorian U-16 goalkeeper Graham Oliver, and he was finally beaten when Johnny Howarth seized on a bad back pass five minutes from time and scored.

For Croydon Howarth played a real captain's part and others to shine were Dick Ward and Mike Edwards. Best for Albion were Jim Daperis, Albert Harrison and George Makousis.

Seven goals were scored in the Western Suburbs and Melbourne game which Melbourne won 4-3.

Wests midfielders Karapatsos and Kypirtidis were instrumental in giving their side a 2-0 half-time lead.

Then a goal by Aukie Waaldyk, after lead-up work by George Kotaridis and Charlie Kelly, snapped Melbourne out of its lethargy.

Joe Szabo headed home a Bleskany corner to make it 2-2, but Wests hit back against the run of play to restore its lead.

Waaldyk struck again, levelling the scores by heading home Vonja's cross. Then Waaldyk crossed to Sean Rooney who slammed home the winner.

FORECASTS: ALTONA CITY v Box Hill; Keilor City v ST ALBANS; ESSENDON LIONS v Western Suburbs; Albion Rovers v Waverley City (draw); Melbourne v CROYDON CITY; FRANKSTON v Green Gully Ajax.

Altona is saved by Green Gully draw

Match of the week

WAVERLEY C. 1 (Whitehurst), ALTONA C. 1 (A. Seenan).

ALTONA: van der Poel, Podley, Lord, H. Seenan, Gramsbergen, Cooper, R. Pocock, Hamill, A. Seenan, Murray, Little.

WAVERLEY C.: Bauer, Storey, Wilson, Humble, Quy, Sharp, McCallum, Whitehurst, Harris, Saunders, Ford.

This was a game of vital importance to both clubs. Waverley needed the points after a series of poor performances and Altona could not afford to drop a point with Green Gully level and playing at home.

Altona kicked off with a stiff breeze behind them, and straight away had Waverley on the defensive.

However, they found the combination of breeze and rock-hard ground difficult to overcome and the Waverley defence coped easily with their attack.

When Waverley broke out Bobby Saunders, showing great speed, won a corner, but McCallum's effort was too strong and eluded Ian Humble's head.

Altona looked dangerous when they came out of defence via Bobby Pocock and Tony Hamill, who passed to Albert Seenan, but Hamill slipped when in a wonderful shooting position and the danger was averted.

At the 12-minute mark Hamill's good corner was hit inches over the bar by David Cooper, but Waverley weren't perturbed and pressed forward well against the wind.

At the 20-minute mark in fact they had won five corners to Altona's one, and in between Peter Whitehurst had missed a Dave Sharp cross by inches and then shot weakly at Hans van der Poel.

Keith Murray, who was having a great game in midfield, intervened with a crunching tackle when Waverley looked dangerous, and then Saunders hit a great ball across the box, but Whitehurst couldn't connect.

Just as it seemed that Waverley was getting a grip on the game, Altona scored, when Albert Seenan found himself in the clear and hooked the ball into the net.

Benny Bauer got his hand to the ball, but couldn't keep it out, and I thought that there was more than a suspicion of offside about it.

Straight away Ian Humble had a great chance but topped his shot and van der Poel fielded the ball coolly.

Then it was Nat Little's turn to score, but this time he was ruled offside.

Waverley kept plugging away and after Humble had hit a hard shot wide, Dave Sharp slammed a free-kick just outside the Waverley box and from the set piece Hamill hammered the ball with his lethal right peg and Bauer nearly broke his fingers tipping it onto the bar, but an off-side decision brought it all to nought. H.T. 0-1.

On resuming, it seemed that the breeze had become stronger as Cooper found to his cost when he put a glorious ball through for Hamill which the wind held up, and Ted Quy was able to step in and boot clear.

The first time Bauer in the Waverley goal got hold of the ball he thumped it first bounce into the Altona box and the high bounce deceived Herbie Seenan and let in Whitehurst who wasn't quick enough.

At the 18 minute mark the same player had the chance of a lifetime when the referee allowed him to go on from a blatantly off-side position, but he bungled it, hitting the ball against a much-relieved van der Poel.

Each time a high ball landed in the Altona box it looked dangerous, but the Altona back four, although living dangerously appeared to be weathering the storm; however, one ball bounced so high that van der Poel had to fling himself backwards to tip it over the bar.

Altona should have gone two up when Hamill scooted away down the right, but his perfect cross was headed over by Cooper at point-blank range.

Waverley seemed to forget about using the wind and started to tip-tap about, which got them nowhere against Altona's robust tackling.

Their best efforts were a hard shot from Tony Harris which brought van der Poel to his knees and a rasping effort from the corner flag by Bobby Saunders.

With only five minutes left, Altona seemed headed for a certain two points, when another huge ball down the middle was hooked over by Tony Harris to Whitehurst and this time the centre headed over van der Poel's arms and into the net.

Even so, I thought a couple of Altona defenders were flat-footed as Whitehurst jumped.

The game had suddenly come to life again, and Waverley went close to a winner when Harris's shot from another long high ball whistled an inch over the bar.

In the dying seconds a momentary mix-up between Bauer and Humble almost allowed Albert Seenan in but the goalie recovered in time.

It was a disappointing result for Altona, who paid with a point for not playing out the full ninety minutes.

With the arrival of Herb Seenan from Sunshine, Keith Murray has been released into the mid-field to fill the gap left by Jim Ackers, and he played a great game with decisive tackling, in fact he and his mid-field partner Cooper put a stranglehold on the Waverley mid-field and their work should have paved the way for a win.

For Waverley, Ian Humble played the libero role to perfection and must have run a hundred miles during the game.

Bobby Saunders caught the eye too and Dave Sharp had a useful game, but the Waverley finishing was woeful.

SEVEN WITH A CHANCE

SECOND DIVISION

The pace is hotting up in this division with the top seven clubs all having a chance of promotion.

Dandenong dropped a point to a Heidelberg who fought for every ball, and thought they had scored once, but had their pleas turned down.

Best for them were Dick Smart, Ray Davies and Dave Parker.

Springvale recorded its eighth win and so doing pushed Richmond into the danger zone, for only three points separate the bottom five clubs.

Paul Madeley scored first for Springvale and, after Dorcevski had equalised, Norm Edgar got the winner at the 57th minute. Best for Springvale were Peter Mur, Eddie Lange and Jackie Gollan.

Newport were disappointed with their effort against another lowly team, Ferntree Gully. The strong breeze spoilt the game, but Newport missed too many chances. Their best were Tony Wolczewski, Mike Olinowski and George Orlinski.

Moreland overcame a determined Bayswater and the winner came from Tony Pilsen in the 75th minute. Ziggy Mnich played brilliantly in the Bayswater goal, keeping at bay Johnny Bedford, Ian Ferretter and Co. Playing with the seniors for the first time, young Colin Merga was outstanding.

Brighton, desperate for a win, were foiled by a determined Keilor Austria for whom Stojanovic scored the winner.

Alan Newton and Bruno Aleksic were best for Keilor, and South American winger Andrades will make his presence felt. Brighton's best were Willie Fulton, Don Gapper and Jimmy Williams.

This week the top game sees Springvale visit Dandenong, whilst Keilor visit Richmond.

FORECAST: Princes Park v MORELAND; BAYSWATER v Heidelberg; NEWPORT v Doveton; DANDENONG v Springvale; Richmond v KEILOR; BRIGHTON v Ferntree Gully.

Mighty Meadows

Fourth Division

Broadmeadows are running away with this division, and Saturday's victory over Sandringham only accentuated their superiority, as Essendon City dropped a point at home.

Laurie Gafa opened the scoring and Gerry Boggan equalised for Sandringham, but Martin Sacco got the winner with 15 minutes left.

The game was well refereed by Ray Blainey and Broadie's best were Andy Gatt, and Anthony Scicluna in his first senior game.

Caulfield continue to improve after a bad start, and they fought back against Ballarat after being shocked by two goals in 30 minutes. Stewart Holmes scored after 40 minutes, and in the second half John Agetgis equalised with a penalty and Peter Visic got the winner. Their best were Brian Hume and Andy Petropoulis.

FORECAST: CLAYTON v South Yarra; UNI. OF MELB v Corio; SANDRINGHAM v Mornington; ROSEBUD v Essendon City; Monash Uni v CAULFIELD CITY; Ballarat v BROADMEADOWS.

Port proves superiority

THIRD DIVISION

There was a sensational result in the top match of this division, where Port Melbourne beat Eltham 7-1. What a pity neither club avails itself of this column. It must have been quite a game.

There were two other good performances, too: Chelsea won at Moorabbin and the gallant Yallourn won at Doncaster, with the talented Charlie Cassar outstanding.

Bell Park have emerged as a threat with several good performances in the last few weeks and they helped to make it a bad day for home sides by winning at Ringwood.

Coburg shocked Park Rangers by beating them 2-0 at Middle Park, both goals being scored by evergreen Bobby Malcolm.

This puts Park Rangers in the danger zone. Park Rangers best were Marcus Clarke, John Clemie and Bob Glenn.

Prahran's run of 10 games without defeat was ended at North Carlton and Carlton's win was all the more meritorious since they had a player, Grizos, sent off.

Stan Bennett scored first for Prahran, then with only four minutes left John Liakopoulos scored and in a hectic goalmouth scramble in the last minute the winner was scored.

Carlton's best were Liakopoulos and Paul Tyrikos, while Jim Graham, Sergio Citerella and Gordon (Veteran) Hay shone for Park Rangers.

THIS WEEK'S FORECASTS: Chelsea v PORT MELBOURNE; ELTHAM v Doncaster Rovers; BELL PARK v Moorabbin City; Yallourn v PARK RANGERS; Coburg v N. Carlton (draw); PRAHRAN C. v Ringwood United.

PLAYER BREAKS LEG, MATCH CALLED OFF

The Victorian Industrial League game between WBA and ANZ Bank 'B' was abandoned at the weekend after WBA player Cane Stojcevski broke his leg.

The injury occurred in a goalmouth scrimmage in the 35th minute.

WBA was leading 2-0 through goals by Peter Jovceski.

Round three of the Black Douglas Cup did not have any shock results but lots of close shaves. The only result approaching a shock was the margin by which Pegasus beat Kodak United, 7-0.

It was one of those days when everything they tried came off as the result indicates.

With Pegasus leading 5-0 at the interval Kodak couldn't get back into the game and had to concede two more before the final whistle brought relief.

Cartro, who had one or two players on the sideline through injury, found Ericsson no pushover.

The windy conditions did nothing to assist the players and Cartro had to settle for a single goal scored by Stan Hildebrand to take them into the next round of the Cup in what was really a rather poor match.

Cup holders Standard AST scored two goals in the first half against Colyer Watson Rovers and after another 45 minutes' play the score had not changed.

Tarax make up the quartet of Division One teams through to the quarter finals. They proved to be far too experienced for Rowntree-Hoadley who gave a good account of themselves and were in with a chance until the 70th minute when Tarax made it safe with their second goal.

Second Division leaders Ford Falcons were pleased to hear the final whistle. Diecraft conceded an own goal for the second successive time in a vital match and once again, try as they might to rectify the situation, they couldn't get the ball into their opponents' net.

Public Works 'A' found, as many others have, that cracking the Fibre Containers defence is no easy matter.

Despite being the better side they only scrambled a win in the dying seconds of the game.

With the referee looking at his watch, Public Works 'A' forced a corner and then were awarded a free kick following which the ball found its way into the net.

The only match to go into extra time was the ANZ Bank 'A'-Philip Morris clash.

Philip Morris led by an own goal at half time but ANZ levelled the score before the 90 minute whistle.

The first period of extra time was just as even as the preceding 90 minutes but with five minutes to go Philip Morris were awarded a free kick on the halfway line.

The ball was kicked at the goal and the stand-in keeper of ANZ deliberately stepped aside and let the ball enter the net, being under the impression an indirect kick had been awarded.

The third goal was also hotly contested since most of the ANZ team considered the ball had never crossed the line.

LETS are the only representatives of the third division remaining and once again it was a late goal that decided the issue.

In a fairly even game Public Works 'B' had hopes of making the last eight before a goal five minutes from time shattered those dreams for another year.

In addition to the Black Douglas Cup round, several Division 4 matches were played. Siemens 'B' in Division 4 East managed to surprise Fibremakers by the inclusion of several 'A' team players who would otherwise have been without a game. Even so the 3-0 margin flattered Siemens although they deserved to win.

Division 4 West has a new leader again. This time it is KSC United, who have managed to get their nose in front by beating CIG in a close match.

Twice KSC led by two clear goals but CIG fought back and, but for missing a penalty, could have drawn level at 3-all before KSC eventually won 4-3 with George Skorsis getting a hat-trick.

Leyland moved into second position, a point behind KSC, by beating former leaders James Miller 2-1.

Down 0-2 at half time, James Miller fought back after the interval and were disappointed in not sharing the points through having two penalty appeals turned down.

Strong winds and a hard ground spoiled the game between AHD and The Age which ended without a goal being scored. Whether the result would have been different if one of The Age players hadn't had to leave the field with a head injury we will never know.

ATV0 GEARED TO BOOST SOCCER

Leading Melbourne soccer writers turned to Australian Rules football last week.

And they were impressed!

It wasn't so much the game that caught their interest, but rather the professional way in which the ATV0 television team handled the telecast.

Jim Barker of the Sun, Peter Georgiou of the Hellenic Herald and Laurie Schwab of Soccer Action were invited by Channel 0 big gun Phil Gibbs to come to Toorak Park and watch the television crew in action.

It was a bit of a PR exercise, as the 0-10 network will almost certainly get the television rights for the national soccer league next year.

Barker, Georgiou and Schwaball agreed that if the Channel 0 people tackle soccer with the same professionalism with which it handles football, we'll have a good show on our hands next year.

The proposal is that the 0-10 network will show a weekly programme of edited highlights from a national league match, plus discussion.

The channel's commentators are top-notch, the technical facilities are first-class and enthusiasm is high.

The network is sure to hire top class commentators to handle its soccer telecasts, so it all points to a successful marriage between ATV0 and soccer.

Commentators Phil Gibbs and Don Hyde chat before the telecast of the VFA match between Dandenong and Prahran at Toorak Park.

Clubs to mark referees

Tasmania is introducing a system under which clubs will assess referees from one point to 10.

This is to help the referees' body itself to grade and classify its member.

If a referee gets consistently low marks from clubs, an inspector will go to that referee's next match to assess his ability.

The idea was suggested by the referees themselves, in a bid to lift the refereeing standard.

New coach for Eagles

Tasmania South club White Eagles has appointed Glyn Jenkins as coach, replacing Tony Skaros.

Jenkins comes from Newport, U.K.,His son Garry, is also a coach, having obtained his first coaching badge at the age of 15 in Western Australia two years ago. That made him the youngest qualified coach in Australia.

Glyn Jenkins coached juniors in Western Australia and later took over senior team Sorrento.

BILLY TO COME

Billy Wilkinson, a former Hull City player, will join George Cross.

The trouble is when. It's not known if he'll be coming later this year or for next season.

Wilkinson is presently playing in America with Pele.

BRIGHT NIGHTS

Brighton has organised two big social nights for next month.

The first, a disco night, will be held at the Dendy Park clubrooms on Saturday, August 7.

Cost is $3 a head and there is a champagne supper.

A sportsman's night will be held at Kathy's and Maggie's Bistro, Fitzroy Football ground, St Kilda Rd, on Monday, August 16.

Cost is $6 a head, and this includes a three course meal but not drinks.

Further information can be obtained by contacting president Arthur Scott or 489 1366 or 92 2534 after hours.

COURTEOUS CATS

Geelong senior players are thinking about the future of their club.

Whenever they are available, the players attend junior training to assist coaching them.

Their advice is helping the side, as it has been playing much better since the seniors started attending junior training.

A junior dance will be held at Hendy hall on Saturday, August 14, and the cost is $10 a double.

Geelong's best and fairest night is on Friday, September 24, and cost is $14 a double.

A steak night is being held at Johnny, Barber's tomorrow night.

Anniversary

D. J. Motors of Hobart will sponsor an end of season competition in Tasmania.

The competition will be run by the Caledonians club to commemorate its 25th anniversary.

The series will run from October 2 to 10 and will feature barbecues, junior five-a-side games and a fete.

DOMAZOS FOR HELLAS?

South Melbourne Hellas will try to get Greek star Mimi Domazos to play guest games with the club next year.

This follows the news that Footscray JUST will try to lure former Yugoslav national team captain Dragan Dzajic and Alexander is trying to bring out Dimitri Papaiannou.

Hellas president Sam Papasavas has spoken to Domazos by phone and Domazos said he would be interested in hearing an offer from the club.

Meanwhile, Hellas has stepped up its training schedule, following its 0-3 loss to Sunshine City two weeks ago.

"Our training will be much stricter from now on and only players who are 100 per cent fit will be selected to the team," Mr Papasavas said.

"I'd rather lose with a team of youngsters than with a team of senior players who shouldn't be playing because of injury or illness."

In recent weeks, Jim Mackay and Peter Ollerton have played despite injury and Jimmy Armstrong despite the effects of flu.

SUNSHINE 2 (Petrov, Cumming penalty) POLONIA 1 (Humphrey).

SUNSHINE: Scholten, Lewis, Kokoska, Anderson, Howe, McCarthy, Mussel, Petrov (Smith), Cumming, Laing, Piotrowski, McRobert.

POLONIA: Litwin, S. Klain, Jaworski, Marmur, Klimecki, Lipiarski, Harfiniak, Czapnik, Nierobisz, Dykun, Esposito, Herman, Humphrey.

Sunshine won its second successive match after a long run of outs on Sunday — but only after Polonia had given it plenty of curry.

Polonia belied its bottom position on the ladder by scoring first and making things difficult for Sunshine.

Sunshine started in sizzling fashion, attacking the net relentlessly.

But a determined Polonia weathered the storm and crept back into the game. At the 20 minute mark it hit the lead.

Hugh Humphrey gave his side the lead, in a goal that left all Sunshine defenders in amazement.

Humphrey was in the penalty area, waiting to pounce on a long through ball and landed it just above keeper John Scholten.

As though insulted by Polonia's cheek, Sunshine equalised within a minute of the kick off.

It came from the boot of Chris Petrov, whose powerful, right-foot drive went to the left hand corner of the net, completely beating Litwin.

Good defensive work by Polonia's Jaworski and Marmur held Sunshine out early in the second half.

Czapnik and Nierobisz were getting the ball into attack regularly, but the lack of striking power was mak-

RINGWOOD MISSED PENALTY

HELLAS 2 (Armstrong, Pye) RINGWOOD 1 (Cankovic).

HELLAS: Kennedy, Pye, Xanthopoulos, Walker, Batticciotto, Andrews, Bourne, Kalafatiss, Ollerton, Armstrong, Cumminga.

RINGWOOD: van Egmond, Adams, Garthwaite, Plumb, Bray, Luyten, O'Callaghan (Cankovic), Smith, Kent, Lynn, Williamson.

League leader South Melbourne Hellas showed why it is top dog by beating a determined Ringwood 2-1 at Jubilee Park on Sunday.

Hellas had to stave off the attacking Ringwood side, as it bombarded the scoring area in an attempt to salvage the game.

However, Ringwood couldn't pass the buck, because it missed a penalty by Chris Kent shortly before half time.

Kent was a dangerous player in the second half and, with Mike Lynn, looked capable of winning the game.

But Xanthopoulos and Walker were life-savers late in the match when the side was under constant pressure.

Jimmy Armstrong, Peter Bourne and Duncan Cummings played well and kept their side to the forefront.

Ringwood lost the game in the opening half and changed over with the score reading 2-0.

The team's goal was scored by Joe Cankovic, a reserve, after he took the field to replace John O'Callaghan.

Keith Adams and Richard Plumb were reliable players for their side, and it was no fault of their that the match was lost.

— DARYL TIMMS.

BROADY TURNS GREEN

Top women's side Greensborough showed its best form ever when it crushed second division club Broadmeadows 15-0 in a cup match on Sunday.

The win was a welcome return to form for Shona Bass, scorer of eight of the side's goals.

Shona had been having an off season, because of poor form and recurring injuries.

Another highlight from Sunday's round was the performance of United's Terese Reid, who scored all six goals in the win over Bayswater.

Mooroolbark's Barry O'Toole gets his head to the ball before Gary Cole, as Peter Vaughan (No. 4) and goalkeeper Lou Ivanoff stand by.

ΕΛΛΕΙΨΗ ΕΝΔΙΑΦΕΡΟΝΤΟΣ

Τά πρωτάθλημα Βικτωρίας προχωρεῖ πρὸς τὸ τέλος του καὶ μαζί μ' αὐτὸ μία διοργάνωση μὲ μακρὰ ἱστορία. Εἶναι τὸ τελευταῖο πρωτάθλημα τουλάχιστον τῶν τεσσάρων ὁμάδων πού θὰ πάρουν μέρος στὴ Ἐθνικὴ Κατηγορία τὸ 1977.

Ὁπωσδήποτε ἡ ἐθνικὴ κατηγορία ἔχει ἐνθουσιάσει ὅλους ὅσους πρόκειται νὰ μετάσχουν σ' αὐτὴν ἀπὸ τὸν πρόεδρο τοῦ σωματείου μέχρι τὸν τελευταῖο φίλαθλο.

Ὅλος αὐτὸς ὁ ἐνθουσιασμὸς φαίνεται ὅτι ἄρχισε νὰ γίνεται μεγαλύτερος ἀπὸ αὐτὸν γιὰ τὴν κατάκτηση τοῦ πρωταθλήματος Βικτωρίας.

Κατὰ τὴν γνώμη μου οἱ παῖκτες καὶ ἰδιαίτερα τῆς Ἑλλάς πού ἔχουν πάνω τους τὸ σπρώξιμο τῶν φιλάθλων γιὰ ἕνα ἀκόμη πρωτάθλημα, ἄρχισαν νὰ δυσανασχετοῦν μὲ τά... «ἴδια καὶ τὰ ἴδια» καὶ νὰ χάνουν τὸ ἐνδιαφέρον τους ἀπὸ ἀγῶνα σὲ ἀγῶνα.

Ἡ προχθεσινὴ ἥττα ἀπὸ τὸ Σάνσαην νομίζω ὅτι ἤτανε μιὰ ἀπόδειξη τοῦ ὅτι οἱ παῖκτες ἤδη ἄρχισαν νὰ δραματίζονται. «ἐθνικὴ κατηγορία» περισσότερα χρήματα, καὶ γιατὶ ὄχι ἐπαγγελματισμό. Γενικὰ μία ἀλλαγὴ τῆς καταστάσεως τὴν ὁποία ζοῦν κάθε Κυριακή.

Ἀποτέλεσμα αὐτοῦ τοῦ δραματισμοῦ εἶναι οἱ ἄθλιες ἐμφανίσεις τῆς ὁμάδας κατὰ τοὺς τελευταίους ἀγῶνες της καὶ αὐτὸ φυσικὰ κατὰ δικὴ μου γνώμη καὶ σύμφωνα μὲ ἀποδοκημασίες τῶν φιλάθλων.

Ἡ φετεινὴ διοργάνωση ἀπὸ τεχνικῆς καὶ ἀγωνιστικῆς ἀπόψεως δὲν εἶναι παρὰ μία ἀποτυχία. Οἱ φίλαθλοι ἔχουν λιγοστέψη ἀκόμη περισσότερο διότι ἔχουν ἄφαρθῆ νὰ βλέπουν τὸ συρφετὸ τῶν ὁμάδων κάθε Κυριακή. Καὶ δὲν εἶναι μόνον ἡ Ἑλλὰς εἶναι καὶ οἱ τέσσερις ὁμάδες πού παρουσιάζουν τὸ ἴδιο θέαμα κάνοντας ἴσως τὸν τελευταῖο πρωταθλητισμὸ στὴν Βικτώρια.

Ἔχουν ἀπομείνει 9 ἀκόμη ἀγῶνες καὶ ἄν οἱ ὁμάδες συνεχίσουν νὰ παρουσιάζουν τὴν ἴδια ποδοσφαιρικὴ εἰκόνα τὸ πρωτάθλημα θὰ τελειώση ἰσόπαλο. Δώδεκα ὁμάδες, δώδεκα φίλαθλοι.

Τὸ πρωτάθλημα ὅμως ὅσο καὶ ἀδιάφορους ἄν ἀφήνει παῖκτες καὶ ἰθύντες Οἱ φίλαθλοι ἐξακολουθοῦν νὰ πληρώνουν τὸ εἰσιτήριό τους κάθε Κυριακὴ σὲ κάθε ἀγῶνα μὲ πάντοτε τὴν ἴδια ἐλπίδα νὰ δοῦν ἕνα ἀγῶνα ὁμάδων πού νὰ μοιάζει κάπως μὲ ποδόσφαιρο.

Δυστυχῶς ὅμως δὲν ὑπάρχει τέτοιο πράγμα ὅπως... «πάρτε τὰ λεφτά σας πίσω».

★

Ἕνα ἀπὸ τὰ θέματα πού συνεζητήθη στὴν συγκέντρωση πού ἔκανε ὁ κ. Φράνκ ἦταν τὰ «ἐθνικὰ ὀνόματα». Ξέρω ὅτι οἱ περισσότεροι φίλαθλοι ἔχουν κουρασθῆ μὲ τὶς ἰδέες, δηλώσεις, κριτικὲς καὶ δημοσιεύσεις ἄρθρων πάνω σ' αὐτὸ τό θέμα, παλιὰ ὑπόθεση γιὰ πολλοὺς ἀλλὰ καὶ γιὰ πολλοὺς ἀκόμη μία ζωτικὴ ὑπόθεση. Εἶναι γνωστὸν ὅτι τὰ «ἐθνικὰ ὀνόματα» ὅπως «Ἑλλάς», «Ἀλέξανδρος», «Τζάστ» πρόκειται νὰ ἐξαφανισθοῦν ἀπὸ τὰ προγράμματα τῆς ἐθνικῆς κατηγορίας. Φυσικὰ δὲν πρόκειται ὑπ' οὐδενὶ λόγω νὰ λείψουν ἀπὸ τὴν στήλη αὐτὴ καὶ ἀπὸ τὸν «Π. Κήρυκα».

Αὐτὸ ὅμως πού παρατήρησα στὴν λίστα τῶν 14 ὁμάδων πού θ' ἀρχίσουν τὴν ἐθνικά τους ὀνόματα.

κὴ κατηγορία εἶναι ὅτι τουλάχιστον δύο ὁμάδες τοῦ Σύδνεϋ, ἡ Χακόα καὶ τὸ Μαρκόνι διατήρησαν τὰ ἐθνικά τους ὀνόματα.

Ἂν καὶ δὲν ὑπάρχει νόμος ὁ ὁποῖος ἀπαγορεύει τὴν ἐπίσημη χρησιμοποίηση ἐθνικῶν ὀνομάτων τῶν ὁμάδων, παρὰ μόνον μιὰ συμφωνία κατόπιν προτάσεως ἐν τούτοις φαίνεται ὅτι ὑπάρχουν καὶ ἐξαιρέσεις ἀκόμα καὶ στὶς συμφωνίες.

Αὐτὸ ὅμως θὰ δυσαρεστήση τοὺς φιλάθλους τῶν ἑλληνικῶν ὁμάδων ἔστω καὶ τυπικὰ μιὰ καὶ οἱ ἑλληνικὲς ἐφημερίδες μαζί τους θὰ διατηροῦν τ ὀνόματά τους. Σ' αὐτὲς τὶς περιπτώσεις ὅμως πρέπει ὁ κανόνας νὰ μὴν ἔχει ἐξαιρέσεις.

Πάντως τὰ ὀνόματα τῶν ὁμάδων εἶναι αὐτὰ τῶν συνοικισμῶν στοὺς ὁποίους βρίσκονται, τὰ ὁποῖα εἶναι κατὰ κάποιο τρόπο Αὐστραλέζικα. Ἤθελα ὅμως νὰ ξέρω τί θὰ ἔκαναν σὲ περίπτωση πού οἱ πρῶτοι Ἕλληνες μετανάστες ἔφτιαχναν μιὰ συνοικία καὶ τὴν ὀνόμαζαν «Ἑλλάς». Τί θὰ ἦταν τότε τὸ ὄνομα τῆς ὁμάδος «ἐθνικὸ» ἢ Αὐστραλέζικο;

WHITE EAGLES A BIG THREAT

White Eagles loom as the big danger to Rapid-Wrest Point to win this year's Tasmania South championship.

White Eagles crept to within striking distance of the league leader with a morale boosting 6-0 win over Metro.

It was anyone's game until a penalty against McKinnon on the half time bell gave Eagles a break.

Eagles scored five goals in the second half, including a hat trick by Oakes.

White Eagles full back Jenkins, a member of the West Australian under 16 side last year, showed potential.

Olympia caught Juventus on an off day and without captain Genovesi and Fraraccio, captain of last year's under 16 team, the Italian club would have been lucky to salvage a point.

Wright of Olympia should have sealed with 11 minutes left, but was caught offside, and Spendiff skied one over the crossbar.

Olympia scored at the 15th minute and Juventus equalled early in the second half.

Outstanding in the match were Spendiff and Broughton for Olympia with Scovone and Hanna best for Juventus.

Goalkeepers Tattam of Croatia and Jones of Calies kept their match scoreless with brilliant work.

Frame should have given Croatia the points, as with two minutes to go he shot over the bar from six yards.

Eastern Suburbs did well holding Rapid to only one goal in the first half, and despite a fine display in goal by Steve Grainger, Farmery, Rapid's forward, scored his fourth hat trick of the season.

South Hobart again failed against Dnipro. Relying on breakaways Dnipro led 2-0 before South got a lucky break when a defender sliced an own goal.

In the northern division, Ulverstone made a rousing start and raced to a two goal lead after the opening seven minutes.

Van Der Poleg and Tom Dolliver scored. Matric scored two in two minutes late in the game but Ulverstone came back and goals to Beaumont and Van Der Poleg made the final score 6-3.

United beat St. Leonards because Chadwick scored four goals, two within a minute.

Devonport rocked away to a 3-0 lead after 20 minutes but in the second half Olympic came back and scored two goals and it could have salvaged a point if it had steadied in front of goal.

Georgetown made heavy going in beating Croatia when it was 1-0 down after five minutes, but Wesson and Scheibell gave it a 2-1 victory.

CHANGE OF DATES

A women's soccer match between the Victorian side and a Bendigo team, organised for August 14, has been brought forward.

The game will now be played on Saturday August 7, at Beischer Park, Reservoir Rd., Bendigo.

Victoria beat Bendigo 6-0 on Saturday, with all goals being scored in the first half.

Victoria will compete in a five a side competition, being run by the Bendigo association later in the year.

ing it easy for Kokoska and Anderson.

A clear-cut decision didn't come until late in the match and once again it was the "Atom Ant" who made the difference.

Tommy Cumming, who had proved a handful for left back Klimecki, was brought down in the penalty box, and he made no mistake with the resultant spot kick.

Sunshine never looked like the side it was against Hellas, due to three reasons.

Sunday's match was probably a comedown after the Hellas affair, where a lot of effort and planning went into the game, Polonia was very determined to win and the Sunshine club held a ball on Saturday night.
